

La-Z-Boy Board Nominates New Member

06/06/06

MONROE, Mich., June 6, 2006 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX News Network/ -- La-Z-Boy Incorporated (NYSE: LZB; PCX) today announced that its Board of Directors nominated Nido Qubein to its Board. Qubein will run for election at the Annual Stockholders' Meeting in August to serve as a director for a term of three years.

Qubein, 57, currently the President of High Point University, in High Point, North Carolina, serves on the Board of BB&T Corporation and is the Chairman of a number of companies, including: Great Harvest Bread Company; Business Life, Inc., a publishing company; McNeil Lehman, Inc., a public relations and advertising firm; and Creative Services, Inc., an international management consulting firm. He is also a world renowned public speaker and serves on the boards of several national organizations, including the YMCA of the USA.

Kurt Darrow, La-Z-Boy President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "We are honored Nido has accepted the Board's nomination. He is an extraordinarily accomplished individual who has achieved great success in business and now in the academic world. A strategic thinker with a unique point of view, he has made monumental changes to High Point University and will undoubtedly make a significant contribution to our company."

Qubein is the recipient of a number of honors and awards, including, among others: the Horatio Alger Award; the Ellis Island Medal of Honor; and Citizen of the Year and Philanthropist of the Year from the city of High Point, North Carolina. He is also the Chairman of the High Point Community Foundation and is Chairman Emeritus of the National Speakers Association Foundation.
