LA-Z-BOY ELABORATES ON CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

MONROE, MI. September 11, 2003 – La-Z-Boy Incorporated (NYSE, PCX: LZB) today elaborated on a statement made by its chairman, Patrick H. Norton, yesterday to Dow Jones Newswire regarding being “comfortable” with the consensus analyst EPS estimate, according to Thomson First Call, of $1.52 per share for the company’s full fiscal year ending April 2004. Kurt L. Darrow, La-Z-Boy’s president and CEO said, “As Pat noted yesterday, we have seen improvement in the retail furniture environment over the Labor Day selling period, but that certainly doesn’t make a year. The visibility and sustainability of retail furniture demand continues to be unpredictable, therefore we will not provide guidance beyond the current fiscal quarter.”

Forward-looking Information

Any forward-looking statements contained in this news release are based on current information and assumptions and represent management’s best judgment at the present time. Actual results could differ materially from those anticipated or projected due to a number of factors. These factors include, but are not limited to: changes in consumer sentiment or demand, changes in demographics, changes in housing sales, the impact of terrorism or war, energy price changes, the impact of logistics on imports, the impact of interest rate changes, potential impact of anti-dumping actions, the availability and cost of capital, the impact of imports, changes in currency rates, competitive factors, operating factors, such as supply, labor, or distribution disruptions including changes in operating conditions or costs, effects of restructuring actions, changes in the regulatory environment, the impact of new manufacturing technologies, factors relating to acquisitions and other factors identified from time to time in the company’s reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The company undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, either to reflect new developments, or for any other reason.
